A moment or Two from Fr. Jim

This week, a question arose regarding the differences in celebration between me and Fr. Jesse, as well as some other priests who have served here at St. Michael's. To best understand, I was trained 38 years ago in the Roman Catholic Rite, embodying what some may call a Vatican II priest. Essentially, I am, and always will be, a street priest at heart. I feel called to be among the people, much like many of my fellow clergy. I believe we are all meant to be traveling field hospitals, to be where the people are.

Two questions were posed:

1. Why do I place the communion into the wine before distributing the Eucharist?
This practice stems from early Church history. The tradition, known as "commingling," involves placing a piece of the Host into the chalice. It symbolizes the unity of the faithful with God and each other. I often recite the prayer, "May the commingling of the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it."
2. Why do I kiss the altar before processing out of the church at the end of our Eucharist?

For me, this gesture symbolizes unity and peace celebrated and shared. The altar represents Christ, as stated in Preface V of Easter: "By the oblation of his Body, he brought the sacrifices of old to fulfillment in the reality of the cross and, by commending himself to you (Father) for our salvation, showed himself the Altar, and the Lamb of sacrifice." In our liturgy, the Church teaches that Jesus "showed" himself as a type of altar, much like our homes where conversations are entered and shared.

This makes sense on various levels. Jesus is the center, source, and goal of our worship, and the altar is the focal point of the Eucharistic celebration. When the priest reverences the altar with a kiss, it expresses love for Christ, who is the center of life and worship.

Another reason why Jesus is likened to the altar pertains to the materials used to construct altars in many churches, especially cathedrals worldwide. An altar made of marble symbolizes its permanence and prominence within the church. Similarly, Jesus on the cross remains steadfast in offering Himself for our salvation, serving as the rock upon which our hope is built.

Announcements

Rebuilding Together

Rebuilding Together: Mr. Burks Home in Park Forest, Illinois.

This year's Rebuilding Together project is in Park Forest, Illinois. Mr. Burks, the homeowner, is 83 years old, and has lived in the home for more than 18 years. He moved from the city to be closer to his daughter, and Grand / Great Grand Children.

Metro Chicago

We are very grateful for the generous team of volunteers who will work on April 27th to spruce up and insure Mr. Burks home is safe. (If you're interested in helping, please contact me at (847-450-3846). For those of us who can't volunteer, there is still an important way we can be part of St. Michael's effort to support Mr. Burks. Purchase supplies and gift cards for home supplies. Items needed include, bath and hand towels, cleaning supplies, toiletries, and storage bins. To have the right number of items, please sign up on the Sign-up genius link below. If you wish to purchase via Amazon, please use the Amazon link below. Bring your generous donations to the green wagons near the community room prior to April 25, and the volunteers will deliver to Mr. Burks on April 27.
