A Note From Our Rector

Jesse Perkins

jperkins@stmichaelsbarrington.org

Hello St. Michael's, and hello the second week of Lent. I have been blessed each Sunday with the attendance, and especially this past week I saw so many new faces that I was unable to meet with them all. What a blessing! Our work is to keep welcoming people who we do not recognize (even if it risks introducing yourself to a long time parishioner!), and also I would like to ask you to please resume wearing your name tags. I know, I know, we sort of got out of the habit during COVID, but it is all the more important now to be able to meet and incorporate newcomers into our faith community.

If you need a name tag, please let Theresa know in the office (admin@stmichaelsbarrington.org), and please wear them whenever you can. If you are ushering, please remind folks as they enter. We will also have paper write-on name tags for anyone who does not yet have a printed one.

I am grateful this week for many things, but among them were the first Saturday evening service (5pm) with Fr. Jim. This service will continue weekly on Saturdays at 5pm in the chapel (enter from the parking lot).

I am also grateful for our three Lent adult education opportunities, and for those leading them. Check them out here before Holy Week is upon us: <https://www.stmichaelsbarrington.org/component/content/article/17-announcements/main-church/1403-lenten-formation?Itemid=571>

After Easter, I will be hosting a "Welcome to the Episcopal Church" class each week at noon (after coffee hour) for anyone interested in learning more about our church, and for those adults wishing to be Confirmed/Received as official members. Mark your calendars for April 7-May 5 at 12pm in the library.

May your Lent continue to be holy: "Seek [God] and you will find [God], knock and the door [of faith] will be opened." (paraphrase Matthew 7:7)

A Note from our Sunday School Director

Kim Curtis

kcurtis@stmichaelsbarrington.org

This week the children will be learning the meaning of their names. We will discuss how Simon's name changes to Peter. Some reflection will be what new name would you give to your self? Can you think of a time when someone saw the best in you? How does this make you feel? We will also write affirmations for each letter in the child's name. They will be able to draw a self portrait of how Jesus sees them in a mirror!

I have printed some of the wandering heart lessons for families to use as continued discussions about our lesson for the third Sunday in Lent. You can find these on the Lenten Resource table in the Nave.

A Moment or Two by Fr. Jim Swarthout

Jesus drove the money changers out of the temple area and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. “Take these out of here, and stop making my Father’s house a marketplace.” John 2: 13-25

THE WORD:

Jesus’ angry toppling of the vendors’ booths and tables is a condemnation of the injustice and exploitation of the faithful in the name of God. So empty and meaningless has their worship become that God will establish a new “temple” in the resurrected body of the Christ.

REFLECTION POINTS:

Our late winter yearning for the newness, freshness, warmth and light of spring mirrors Jesus’ angry expulsion of the merchants from the temple. Christ comes to bring newness to humankind, to bring a springtime of hope to a people who have lived too long in a winter of alienation and despair.

Jesus’ cleansing of the temple challenges us to realize that our parish “temple” is called to reflect God’s Kingdom of compassion and peace, healing and justice, in this community. Everything we do as a parish, from our music to doughnuts after Eucharist, from religious ed to the quilters’ group, is the revelation of God’s love — and becoming that kind of church begins by “showing up” and contributing to the working of revealing that love in our midst.

Lent Adult Study with Deacon Tim

Contemplating Sanctified Art for Lent

Dear people of St. Michael's,

Proclamation is our topic for the upcoming Third Sunday of Lent. "Who Do You Say That I Am?" is the art piece by Rev. Lauren Wright Pittman. Please join us, spending about a half hour between Sunday services, beginning at 9:10 am, to contemplate this piece of Sanctified Art. We hear the scripture inspiration, the artist's reflection, and commentary. Discussion arising from our contemplations could lead to interesting, unanticipated pathways. We gather in the conference room near the Community Room.

Adult Forum with The Rev. Ralph Osborne

You are invited to join an adult forum after the 10:00 services during Lent. We will meet in the library from 11:30 -12. Fr. Ralph will be leading a study of chapters 13-17 in the Gospel of John. It is called the Farewell Discourse. Each week we will explore the last words Jesus had for his disciples.
